RE: 04-1542 - G.M.S.

Dear MR. D'Alleo,

I truly don't intend to be a constant burden. So please forgive me for this continuous correspondence to make my concerns clear. But through my past experience in dealing with these defendants, I have come to discover that they have no problem in tampering with outgoing or incoming mail. Now, I received a court docket that reflects my response to the defendants' motion to dismiss. But the docket also reflects that there were attachments, #1, #2, #3, #4 AND #5. I just wanted to be sure that you received exactly what I sent. So just to be sure that there wasn't
